

The variety of breeding places of the Dengue mosquito in your surroundings

1. Old tires
2. Laundry tanks
3. Uncovered tanks/cisterns
4. Drums/Barrels
5. Discarded buckets and other containers
6. Pet dishes
7. Construction blocks
8. Bottles
9. Discarded tin cans
10. Tree holes & bamboo
11. Bottle pieces on top of walls
12. Old shoes
13. Flower pots
14. Discarded toys
15. Roof guttering
16. Bromeliad plants
17. Garden containers & tools
18. Brick Holes
19. Unmaintained wading/swimming pool

Adaptation Of Original Flyer
 Produced by the Caribbean Epidemiology Centre (CAREC) in collaboration with PAHO/WHO with the support of the Italian Government

Without containers there is no mosquito; without mosquitoes there is no Dengue.
 Get rid of breeding places in your surroundings.